

Governor Brown Appoints TJSL Alumna as Deputy Secretary of Housing Policy

California Governor Brown has appointed Thomas Jefferson Alumna Susan Riggs '08' to serve his administration as Deputy Secretary of Housing Policy at the California Business, Consumer Services, and Housing Agency in Sacramento, CA.

"Susan's accomplishments are something to celebrate," said Professor Susan Bisom-Rapp. "She is one of our most talented and innovative graduates and she is making a tremendous difference in California."

Riggs has dedicated her career to improving housing policy.

She has promoted the creation of safe, stable, and affordable healthy housing for low income families since 2010 as executive director of the San Diego Housing Federation and has taught housing policy and real estate economics as adjunct faculty at San Diego State University since 2005. Previously, she practiced affordable housing and redevelopment law at Best Best and Krieger LLP and served as vice president of government affairs for the San Diego Association of Realtors. Riggs has also served as chief policy advisor and senior policy analyst for the San Diego Housing Commission, as adjunct faculty at Southwestern College, and as an associate at Trammell Crow Company and CB Richard Ellis.

In addition to serving as an appointee to the California Resource Board's Environmental Justice Advisory Committee, Riggs also serves on the Board of Directors of several prominent housing boards. Riggs is an active board member for Civic San Diego, Housing California, Home Again, and the Board of Governors of the California Housing Consortium. Previously, she served as president for Citizens Coordinate for Century 3 (C3) and as co-chair for the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce Housing Policy Committee.

"Ms. Riggs is well remembered at Thomas Jefferson School of Law as one of our most promising students. We always expected she would achieve great things. Her appointment is a great confirmation that with hard work and dedication, you can achieve anything with a law degree from Thomas Jefferson," said Professor Bryan H. Wildenthal.

Riggs has earned various awards and distinctions since graduating Magna Cum Laude from Thomas Jefferson. In 2008 she won the California State Bar Public Law Writing Competition. In 2011 she was inducted into San Diego Metro Magazine's "40 Under 40 Hall of Fame" and into Lambda Alpha International, an honorary society for the advancement of land economics.

Professor Deo Awarded 2014 Neil Gotanda Speakership

Professor Meera Deo has been invited to be the 2014 Neil Gotanda Speaker by the Berkeley Asian American Law Journal. Her remarks will be part of the Berkeley Journal of African-American Law and & Policy's annual symposium. This year's symposium, "25 Years From Now: The Case for Diversity and Future Affirmative Action in the Wake of Fisher and Schuette" is being co-hosted by the two journals and will be held on March 3, 2014 at UC Berkeley School of Law.

Professor Meera Deo

This year's symposium will discuss the constitutional and practical implications of the recent United States Supreme Court's decision in Fisher v. University of Texas and its upcoming decision in Schuette v. Coalition to Defend Affirmative Action.

The Neil Gotanda speakership awarded to Professor Deo is named after Professor Neil Gotanda, a constitutional law expert. Professor Gotanda is widely considered to be one of the founders of Asian American Jurisprudence. At the symposium, Professor Deo will discuss the affirmative action Supreme Court decisions and present her forthcoming publication on affirmative action.

Professor Deo is a nationally-recognized interdisciplinary scholar on institutional diversity and affirmative action. Her scholarship has been cited in numerous amicus briefs filed in the U.S. Supreme Court and published in leading law journals around the country.

Professor Deo earned her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School and her Ph.D from UCLA. Before coming to Thomas Jefferson, Professor Deo worked for the ACLU's National Legal Department in New York City, Women's Health, and as Director of the Breast Cancer Legal Project at the California Women's Law Center. She currently serves on the Association of American Law School's Executive Committee on Law and Social Sciences Section and is an appointee to the California Commission on Access to Justice.

Thomas Jefferson School of Law to Host Conference on Women and the Military on Friday, February 21 in Room 325

Addressing the Unique Forces Shaping Women's Access to Power and Justice in the U.S. Military

The conference is free for all TJS� students, faculty and staff but you must register in order to attend!

The 2014 Women and the Law conference held on Friday, February 21 will focus on women and the military. This event will provide an opportunity to learn about a number of issues, including whether new statistics on sexual assault in the military warrant legislative changes to the Uniform Code of Military Justice, and will explore the topic of women serving in elite combat units.

This conference will be of interest not just to those with a military connection, but to anyone who seeks to gain insight on leadership and success from some of the nation's most powerful lawyers in uniform.

The keynote speaker, Vice Admiral Nanette DeRenzi, serves as Judge Advocate General of the U.S. Navy. She is the first woman to hold this position. The 2014 Ruth Bader Ginsburg Lecturer, Captain Stacy Pedrozo, serves as the Commanding Officer of the Naval Justice School, which trains every lawyer in the Navy and Marine Corps.

Thomas Jefferson School of Law is a longtime leader in the education of men and women who have served in the U.S. military. Eleven percent of the Fall 2013 incoming class served in uniform, and the school is home to a Veteran's Legal Assistance Clinic and an on-campus chapter of Student Veterans of America.

What: 14th Annual TJS� Women and the Law Conference / Women and the Military
When: Friday, February 21, 2014 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Where: Thomas Jefferson School of Law 1155 Island Avenue, San Diego, CA 9210 Room 325
Who: Keynote Speaker: Vice Admiral Nanette DeRenzi
Speaker: Captain Stacy Pedrozo, Commanding Officer of the Naval Justice School

The Conference is open to the public at a $35 dollar registration fee. $25 dollars for Active Duty and Retired Military. All Conference attendees must register at <http://www.tjsl.edu/conferences/wlc> in order to attend the event. The conference is free for all TJS� students, faculty and staff - but you must register in order to attend!

If you would like to volunteer to help during the conference please contact Danielle Gilbert at gilberda@tjsl.edu.
